

KAHNKE BROTHERS TREE FARM

Fruit Tree Descriptions:

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple- edible crab  | Pollination Time: | Early - Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Chestnut | Fruit Appearance: | 2" , edible crabapple | juicy, sweet, crisp, nutty |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Good over all | Storage Life: | Medium | fresh eating and desert |
| Other Notes: | Introduced by the University of Minnesota in 1946. Hardy to 50 below. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid - Late Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Fireside | Fruit Appearance: | Large, red striped | juicy, sweet, mild, firm |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Mid October | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Pretty good scab and rust | Storage Life: | Long | fresh eating, baking cooking & freezing |
| Other Notes: | Very aromatic. 'Fireside' will not pollinate 'Connell Red'. U of M- 1943. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid - Late Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Freedom | Fruit Appearance: | Large, red | crisp, juicy, slightly tart |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | very productive | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late September | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Excellent disease resistance | Storage Life: | Good until January in cold storage | fresh eating, sauces and juice |
| Other Notes: | This tree is viewed as spray-free. It is immune to apple scab and resistant to other fungi. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid - Late Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Frostbite™ | Fruit Appearance: | Small, maroon over yellow | juicy, very sweet, tropical, crisp, firm |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | Annual bearer | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late September - Early October | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | | Storage Life: | 3-4 mos. In cold storage | fresh eating, cider, drying and desert |
| Other Notes: | This apple is extremely hardy. It was used in the breeding of Sweet 16 and Honeycrisp. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Late Season, won't work w/ Haralred | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Haralson | Fruit Appearance: | Medium-sized, red | firm, crisp, tart |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | Biennial bearer | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Early October | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Some resistance to scab | Storage Life: | Keeps until early spring | cooking, great for sauce and cider |
| Other Notes: | 'Haralson' is an extremely hardy tree that is a favorite of bakers and cooks. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | No pollinator needed- 3 in 1 tree | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Hat Trick | Fruit Appearance: | Honeycrisp, Sweet Sixteen & Zestar | crisp, juicy, well- balanced |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Sweet Sixteen can be slow to bear | |
| Height/Width: | espalier | Harvest Time: | Late August - Late September | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Sweet 16 resists Fire Blight | Storage Life: | Honeycrisp- excellent, Zestar- good | excellent for fresh eating and good for cooking |
| Other Notes: | Perfect for those with limited space, this tree should be grown along a fence or staked. | | | |

KAHNKE BROTHERS TREE FARM

Fruit Trees- continued...

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Early | Fruit Flavor: juicy, sweet, mild, semi-firm |
| Variety: | Hazen | Fruit Appearance: | Large, dark red; yellow-green flesh | |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | Fruits 1st year, annual bearer after | Fruit Uses: fresh eating, cooking & desert |
| Height/Width: | 10-15' x 14' (natural dwarf) | Harvest Time: | Late August | |
| Disease Resistance: | Great! spray-free tree | Storage Life: | Short | |
| Other Notes: | This tree has a natural, semi-dwarf form. 1980 North Dakota introduction. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: juicy, sweet/tart, crisp |
| Variety: | Honeycrisp | Fruit Appearance: | Yellow fruit with red mottling | |
| Zone: | *3 | Bearing: | | Fruit Uses: fresh eating, salad & sauce |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late September | |
| Disease Resistance: | Good fire blight and scab | Storage Life: | Very long | |
| Other Notes: | This University of Minnesota introduction is our best selling apple by far. (1991) | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid - Late Season | Fruit Flavor: juicy, sweet & crisp |
| Variety: | Honeygold | Fruit Appearance: | Medium - large, blushed gold | |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | | Fruit Uses: fresh eating & cooking, great for cider |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' & 20-25' x 25' | Harvest Time: | Early - Mid October | |
| Disease Resistance: | Fairly good rust resistance | Storage Life: | Medium | |
| Other Notes: | 'Honeygold' is the best yellow apple that is reliably hardy for MN. U of M- 1969. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: spicy, aromatic, crisp, juicy and well-balanced |
| Variety: | Jonathan | Fruit Appearance: | Medium, round, red with cream flesh | |
| Zone: | 5 | Bearing: | Heavy producer | Fruit Uses: tasty fresh; also great for sauce and cider |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late September - Early October | |
| Disease Resistance: | Susceptible to fungus | Storage Life: | Short | |
| Other Notes: | This apple was discovered in Woodstock, NY during the early 1800's. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Early Season | Fruit Flavor: sweet, crisp & juicy with the scent of honey |
| Variety: | KinderKrisp | Fruit Appearance: | Small, red stripes over yellow base | |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Bears fruit at a young age | Fruit Uses: snack-sized apple best for fresh eating |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late August | |
| Disease Resistance: | Very good resistance | Storage Life: | No information available | |
| Other Notes: | Apples cling tightly to the tree until they are picked and devoured. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: tart, firm, crisp & juicy |
| Variety: | Red Prairie Spy | Fruit Appearance: | Large, red with yellow undertones | |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Heavy producer | Fruit Uses: excellent for baking, tart fresh eater |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late September - Early October | |
| Disease Resistance: | Moderate scab & rust resist. | Storage Life: | Long | |
| Other Notes: | Less likely to drop at maturity than its predecessor, this tart apple is a winner! | | | |

KAHNKE BROTHERS TREE FARM

Fruit Trees- continued...

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Late Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Red Regent | Fruit Appearance: | Medium to large, red | juicy, crisp & well-balanced |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | no information available | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Early October | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Moderately susceptible | Storage Life: | Good | excellent fresh or cooked |
| Other Notes: | Red Regent' is a well-balanced apple with flavor resembling that of 'Delicious'. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | SnowSweet® | Fruit Appearance: | 3", bronze-red over yellow-green | sweet, slightly tart, unusual |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Annual bearer | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Mid - Late September | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | fire blight and scab resistant | Storage Life: | | fresh eating & salad, slow to oxidize |
| Other Notes: | 'Honeycrisp' makes a great pollinator for this, fellow U of M tree. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|---------------------|------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Early Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | State Fair | Fruit Appearance: | medium, red striped | juicy, sweet & firm |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Mid - Late August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Okay fire blight & rust | Storage Life: | Short | fresh eating, salad & baking |
| Other Notes: | This apple would work well with 'Hazen' or 'Zestar' as pollinators. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Sweet Sixteen | Fruit Appearance: | medium, red striped | juicy, very sweet, crisp, kind of like cherry candy |
| Zone: | *3 | Bearing: | starts slow, then annual | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' & 20-25' x 25' | Harvest Time: | Mid - Late September | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Moderate over all | Storage Life: | Long | sauce, baking & desert |
| Other Notes: | 'Honeycrisp' makes a great pollinator for this tree. U of M- 1978. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|---------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Early - Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Wealthy | Fruit Appearance: | Medium, red-striped | tart, balanced |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Often produces the first season | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Mid September | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Somewhat susceptible | Storage Life: | Good | multi-purpose, great for cooking, pie & cider |
| Other Notes: | 'Wealthy' is the first commercial apple variety to come out of Minnesota. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apple- edible crab  | Pollination Time: | Early Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Whitney | Fruit Appearance: | Palm-sized, yellow with red stripes | crisp, juicy, sub-acid, nearly sweet |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | Heavy bearer | |
| Height/Width: | 20-25' x 25' | Harvest Time: | Mid - Late August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Okay fire blight & rust | Storage Life: | Short | fresh eating, cooking, sauces and preserves |
| Other Notes: | Productive and excellent for snacking, this is a great tree for wildlife to munch on too. | | | |

KAHNKE BROTHERS TREE FARM

Fruit Trees- continued...

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Mid Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Winecrisp™ | Fruit Appearance: | medium-sized, dark red | juicy and spicy, well-balanced, crisp |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Early - Mid October | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Great resistance to scab | Storage Life: | Very long | fresh eating & cooking, |
| Other Notes: | 'Winecrisp' is a heavy producer. It was bred by the University of Illinois in 1989. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|---------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Apple  | Pollination Time: | Early Season | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Zestar!® | Fruit Appearance: | 3", red over yellow | juicy, well-balanced w/ brown sugary overtone |
| Zone: | *3 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 12-15' x 14' | Harvest Time: | Late August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Moderate fire blight & rust | Storage Life: | Medium | fresh eating & cooking |
| Other Notes: | This is a delicious apple! 'Zestar' is another wonderful U of M introduction. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|
| Fruit Type: | Apricot  | Pollination Time: | Late April | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Moongold | Fruit Appearance: | freestone, 1.75", light orange, round | juicy, sweet, sprightly, thick-skinned |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Fruits earlier than 'Sungold' | |
| Height/Width: | 10-15' tall | Harvest Time: | Late July | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Good disease resistance | Storage Life: | Good for canning | fresh eating, jam & preserves |
| Other Notes: | This tree blooms in early April. Plant in a sheltered location to protect from frost. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Apricot  | Pollination Time: | Late April | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Sungold | Fruit Appearance: | freestone, 1.25", bright gold, oval | mild and sweet |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | Fruits a bit later than 'Moongold' | |
| Height/Width: | 10-15' tall | Harvest Time: | Early August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Good disease resistance | Storage Life: | Good for canning | fresh eating, sauce and jam |
| Other Notes: | This tree blooms in early April. Plant in a sheltered location to protect from frost. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Cherry  | Pollination Time: | Self-fruitful | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Meteor | Fruit Appearance: | 1", bright red with yellow flesh | juicy, mildly acidic |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 10-14' tall | Harvest Time: | Early July | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Resistant to leaf spot | Storage Life: | Cans and freezes well | perfect for pies & preserves, great dried |
| Other Notes: | Birds find these cherries very appealing, so bird netting may be necessary. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Pear  | Pollination Time: | Early May | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Parker | Fruit Appearance: | large, golden-bronze | sweet, juicy & tender |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | | |
| Height/Width: | 15' tall | Harvest Time: | August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | | Storage Life: | Keeps well in the refrigerator | fresh eating, jams and jellies |
| Other Notes: | Always pick pears before they are fully ripened and finish the process indoors. | | | |

KAHNKE BROTHERS TREE FARM

Fruit Trees- continued...

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Pear  | Pollination Time: | Early May | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Summcrisp | Fruit Appearance: | 3" , medium, green with a red blush | sweet & crisp |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | annual producer | |
| Height/Width: | 15' tall | Harvest Time: | Mid August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | good fire blight resistance | Storage Life: | up to 2 months in the fridge | fresh eating |
| Other Notes: | 'Parker' is a good pollinator for this tree. Harvest fruit when it is still crisp and green. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Pear  | Pollination Time: | Early May | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Ure | Fruit Appearance: | 2" diameter, greenish-yellow | super juicy and sweet |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | May take up to 7 years to bear | |
| Height/Width: | 25' tall | Harvest Time: | Mid August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Good fire blight resistance | Storage Life: | Can or freeze before storing | good fresh or canned |
| Other Notes: | 'Ure' is a tough little cookie with sturdy branching that holds up well in the wind. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|--|--------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
| Fruit Type: | Plum  | Pollination Time: | Late April | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Black Ice® | Fruit Appearance: | Tennis ball sized, blue-black | juicy & very sweet with firm, red flesh |
| Zone: | *3 | Bearing: | Often biennial | |
| Height/Width: | 8-12' tall | Harvest Time: | Early August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Prune & protect trunk | Storage Life: | | fresh eating |
| Other Notes: | This plum has a natural, dwarf form. 'Toka' makes a good pollinator. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|--|---|
| Fruit Type: | Plum  | Pollination Time: | Late April | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Superior Plum | Fruit Appearance: | Large, dark red fruit w/ yellow flesh | sweet, juicy, clingstone |
| Zone: | 4 | Bearing: | May fruit the first year, biennial after | |
| Height/Width: | 15-20' tall | Harvest Time: | Late August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Thinning prevents brown rot | Storage Life: | | great for fresh eating, preserves and desserts |
| Other Notes: | This little tree wants to fruit like crazy! Focus on pruning and training first for best results. | | | |

| | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------|------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Fruit Type: | Plum  | Pollination Time: | Late April | Fruit Flavor: |
| Variety: | Toka | Fruit Appearance: | clingstone, medium - large, bronze | rich & spicy, firm & fragrant |
| Zone: | 3 | Bearing: | heavy producer | |
| Height/Width: | 15-20' tall | Harvest Time: | Mid August | Fruit Uses: |
| Disease Resistance: | Protect trunk in winter | Storage Life: | | fresh eating & canning |
| Other Notes: | 'Toka' is a superior pollinator. This tree flowers heavily and its foliage turns red in fall. | | | |